

Art & Aquaponics Symposium

Saturday, November 15, 2014

Kapolei High School, Cafeteria

UPDATED AGENDA

(subject to change)

9:30 am

Registration

10:00 am

Keynote speaker Solomon Enos -
How can art, science, math, technology, nature and culture come together to inspire 21st century education?

10:45 am

Concurrent sessions - Presentations by aquaponics experts and keiki activities (recycled art, mural painting, t-shirt screening)

12:00 pm

Lunch catered by Kapolei High's culinary arts program
Visit booths with aquaponics experts

12:30 pm

Concurrent sessions - Presentations by aquaponics experts, keiki activities, and teachers

2:00 pm

Closing, evaluation and prizes

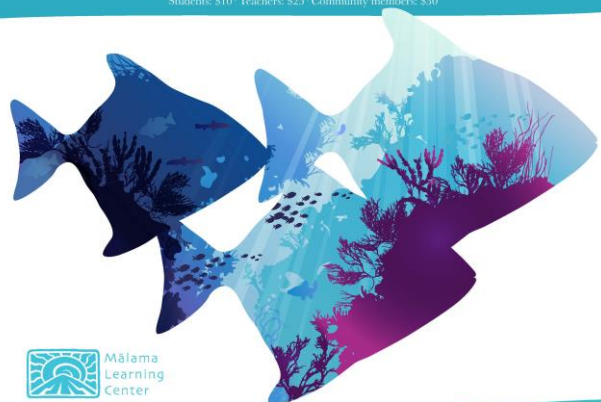

2:30 pm

Pau

Sat. November 15, 2014, 10am to 3pm (lunch provided*)

Kapolei High School, 91-5007 Kapolei Pkwy, Bldg J, Kapolei, HI 96707
Students $10 Teachers $25 Community members $30

Register today: www.malamalearningcenter.org or call 808-305-8287

Experience hands-on demonstrations by artists, teachers, and aquaponics experts. Learn from Waianae-grown Solomon Enos on how art, science, math, technology, nature and culture can merge to inspire 21st century education. He will also lead a mural project that will be the heart of a peace garden.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY MĀLAMA
LEARNING CENTER & OUR PARTNERS:

